It gives me great pleasure to announce our receipt of a very gracious and generous donation by The Two Hundred Club of Warren County!

Since their inception in 1981, The Two Hundred Club of Warren County has been a premier charitable entity in the region, dedicated to proudly providing financial assistance to active and fallen law enforcement, fire, and emergency medical services, by assisting widows and widowers during their time of need, and in awarding numerous educational scholarships to their families. Additionally, The Two Hundred Club of Warren County annually acknowledged exceptional services provided to the citizenry by awarding Meritorious Service and Valor Awards.

Unfortunately, after thirty-nine years of charitable endeavors, The Two-Hundred Club of Warren County decided to dissolve their charitable corporate status due to continued declines in participation and membership. In doing so, and in accordance with their charter and New Jersey Corporate Law, the Board of Trustees was compelled to distribute their financial assets to like charitable organizations. Thanks to the input of the Club's 1st Vice-President, Sal Maggio, the Board decided to donate $60,000 to our N.J. Former Troopers Heritage Foundation to further our sponsorship of scholarships, assistance to widows/widowers and their families, and for the Good of the Order of our overall charitable endeavors.

The Two Hundred Club of Warren County also made generous charitable donations to our fellow NJSP organizations, including; $10,000 to the NJSP Survivors of the Triangle, COPS Chapter; $10,000 to the State Troopers Fraternal Association Foundation; $10,000 to the New Jersey State Troopers Non-Commissioned Officers Association Foundation; and $10,000 to the New Jersey State Troopers Superior Officers' Association Foundation.

Thanks to the years of dedicated service to our 1st Responders, the final decision of the Executive Board of The Two Hundred Club of Warren County – President, James Travis; 1st Vice-President, Sal Maggio; 2nd Vice-President, William Rockafellow; Treasurer, Barbara Harding; and Secretary, Gary Van Vliet to unanimously bequeath in our NJSP related charitable organizations these donations, we can continue to carry on their tradition to assist those who have served.

In Sincere Gratitude,

George J. Wren, Jr., Chairman
